TO: Carl Swenson, City Manager

THROUGH: Susan K. Thorpe, Deputy City Manager

FROM: Larry J. Ratcliff, Chief of Police

SUBJECT: Bill Weigt's "America's Most Wanted" award

SUMMARY:

Police Investigator Bill Weigt is being honored by the television show "America's Most Wanted". After being nominated and several weeks of voting, he was notified on Monday, May 11, that he had been selected the 2009 America's Most Wanted All-Star. Bill was up against seven other law enforcement professionals from across the country.

Bill, who was paralyzed during a 2005 incident following a drug-related shooting, now works as a Police Investigator in the Criminal Investigations Section, coaches a football team, and is an active father.

Bill Weigt will be featured on the Saturday, May 23, 2009, edition of "America's Most Wanted", which will include a reenactment of the 2005 incident. He just returned from North Carolina, where he was honored at the Nascar Sprint Cup Series All-Star Challenge at the Lowe's Motor Speedway.
